

Impact of the Tohoku Pacific Earthquake on Seven Bank

Seven Bank, Ltd., wishes to express its deepest sympathy and condolences to all those affected by the Tohoku Pacific Earthquake of March 11, 2011.

Following is a summary of how Seven Bank has been affected so far.

1. Impact on Operations

(1) Seven Bank's ATM services

The operation of some ATMs, primarily in areas of Iwate, Miyagi, Fukushima, and Ibaraki Prefectures, has been suspended due to power outages and other effects of the disaster. Of approximately 15,300 ATMs nationwide in Japan, the operation of around 2,100 machines has been affected. Services are being gradually restored, however, as electricity is restored. As of noon on March 15, 2011, around 450 ATMs remained out of service.

(2) Rolling blackouts by Tokyo Electric Power Company

Tokyo Electric Power Company is planning rolling blackouts in its service areas. As the rolling blackouts take place, ATM services in the affected areas will be suspended temporarily.

Once power has been restored, ATM services will also be restored automatically.

2. Impact on Financial Results

Seven Bank is currently working to determine what impact, if any, the earthquake will have on its business and will immediately disclose any relevant information if it determines that the impact on its financial results may be material.
